The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—Golden Medical Discovery—was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famous "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, doctors and scientists on Medical Notice who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated, may lead to consumptive stages. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. "Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

A Reliable Remedy CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm is quickly absorbed. Gives Relief at Once. It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. It cures the Soreness of Throat and Sore Eyes. Full size 50 cts., at Drug-gists or by mail. In liquid form, 75 cents. Price Brothers, 551 Warren Street, New York.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, flatulency, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going directly to the stomach nerves, this remedy succeeds in favor of Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such healing accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and salivary complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

MURDER IN WASHINGTON.

Because she refused to entertain his proposal of marriage and had ordered him from her presence, Harry L. Holmes, for two months a driver for the Knox Express Company, last night shot and killed Mrs. Mary Hamilton, a widow of little over a year, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Groves, a 1423 Duncan street northeast Washington. After firing the fatal shot, Holmes pressed the revolver to his head and attempted to kill himself. The trigger refused to work, and after knocking down Mrs. Groves, who attempted to wrest the pistol from him, he made his escape through a rear door.

Holmes fired three shots at Mrs. Hamilton, the third piercing the woman's breast. With the last shot the woman fell screaming, "My God, he has killed me." Mrs. Groves, the only eye-witness, rushed upon Holmes and attempted to smother the revolver.

"If you interfere with me, I will shoot you full of holes," Holmes is said to have told the woman.

Realizing that the man was desperate, Mrs. Groves brushed past him and fell beside her daughter, who was murmuring incoherently. Holmes went into an adjoining room. Mrs. Groves quickly followed. As she crossed the threshold Holmes had the revolver at his temple and was pulling on the trigger. The mechanism apparently was out of order, but as Holmes made a last desperate effort to discharge the weapon, Mrs. Groves grasped his wrist. The man threw her from him and, leaping over a chair, ran through the kitchen and made his escape by scaling the fence.

Mrs. Groves made her way back to her daughter's side, but the young woman had lapsed into unconsciousness, and a few minutes later expired.

Mrs. Hamilton, who was twenty-three years of age, was the widow of Clifford Hamilton, a marine, who was killed in the Philippine Islands. She was married about five years ago, and two weeks after the wedding her husband was ordered away.

Holmes had boarded with Mrs. Groves for several years.

To contradict certain talk and to put the consuming public in possession of the truth, we say in plain words that no one in this town can sell as good coffee as Arbuckles' Ariosa for as little money.

Misbranded and make-believe Mocha and Java, or coffee sold loose out of a bag or a bin, is not as good value for the money, nor can it be sold at as narrow profit, nor reach the consumer under as favorable conditions.

When you buy Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee you get more than 16 net ozs. of straight, wholesome Brazilian coffee from the largest coffee firm in the world, with that firm's direct assurance that they are giving you the best coffee in the world for the money.

SUICIDE FROM DEPENDENCY.

Dependent upon loss of employment after nine years on a steady job, Louis McElroy, 32 years old, yesterday shot and killed himself in his home in New York. McElroy had been employed by Douglas Robinson as an engineer and rigger for nine years, up to Saturday, when he was laid off. After he had eaten luncheon yesterday he went into his room and got his revolver. Then he returned to the dining-room. When Mrs. McElroy saw the weapon she tried to wrest it from him. He broke away from her and ran out into the hall. She was dragging at his coat tails until he reached the stairway and ran up toward the roof. His wife followed, crying for help, but when he reached the doorway leading to the roof he put two bullets in his right temple and fell at his wife's feet dead.

Chopped hands are quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.
